

THE KEY TO UNDERSTAND
THE FUTURE
IS ONE WORD:
SUSTAINABILITY

The most sustainable hotel in Bremen

ROLE MODEL

„We adopt the function of a role model for the industry, and with our attitude and our activities around the topic of sustainability we contribute to making Bremen even more attractive as a destination.“

General Manager Angelika Zupanc

The following is an excerpt from our measures around the topic of sustainability. But our commitment does not stop there. We constantly expand our actions: investing a great deal of energy and teamwork, we try to do even more for ourselves and our planet – every day.

As part of our application for the TOURISM AWARD BREMEN 2022 in the category “Sustainability”, we were the only hotel among the nominated companies and thus the most sustainable hotel in the city.

OUR AMBITIONS

Our sustainable hotel concept is supported by our actions, our mindfulness, our appreciation, and our heart!

ACTIONS

Acting sustainably is part of our genetic makeup and implemented almost 100% in our value chain. We regard sustainability as continuous development – for higher quality at all levels.

MINDFULNESS

For us, developing meaningful, sustainable living and working environments is also part of a sustainable corporate culture. Mindfulness is part of our daily life.

APPRECIATION

We call it Resonance Culture. Anyone who books or collaborates with us supports our climate and environmental protection measures and thus creates added value for everyone at the same time.

HEART

Our guests are cared for, improve their ecological footprint when staying with us, and support social projects with their booking. In this way, we support others together who are in need of help – which is a matter close to our heart and the ones of our guests.

SUSTAINABILITY WHAT CAN WE CONTRIBUTE?

ACTIONS

For us as hosts, acting sustainably means above all conserving resources with respect and mindfulness for nature, while incorporating a high level of cultural and social sensitivity.

Under the premise “Think globally – act locally” we therefore actively take measures to promote sustainability: from integrating certified organic and fair trade products to the greatest possible reduction and compensation of CO₂ emissions for carbon neutral overnight stays and carbon neutral meetings.

We document the sum of our sustainability performance publicly and transparently.

KLIMATO

Fact: a typical lunch oder dinner in Germany causes 1,7 kg CO₂e.

1,7 kg CO₂e equals approx. the average emission, released by burning 3,8 litres of petrol.

We offer our guests the possibility to choose a dish with a low CO₂ foot print, to eat more sustainable and have a positive impact on the environment.

LIVING SUSTAINABILITY

ARSHI

“It is not only for what we do that we are held responsible, but also for what we do not do – sustainability starts with ourselves.”

SASKIA

“At our hotel, sustainability is not a mood. Sustainability knows only one direction – straight ahead into the future.”

ABDEL & PETER

“For us, sustainability in the hotel means holding the (Bremen) key to the future in our hands.”

JHESSI

“At the bar, we make sure not to pre-cut too much fruit for our cocktails, so we don’t produce waste. Also, we fill the dishwasher baskets optimally so that every dishwashing cycle is efficient.”

ANGELIKA

“Sustainability is very close to my heart. I have been living vegan for almost 3 years. I want to inspire my team every day to be curious and brave, to break new ground, with passion and belief that together we can make the future more sustainable. Everyone can contribute, just do it.”

TIM

“For me, sustainability means using all resources in such a way that I can use everything in the best possible way and thus derive the greatest possible benefit from it. Again, we thus avoid food waste and protect natural resources, reduce the CO₂ impact and avoid the overproduction of food.”

GITTA

“At our hotel, it can clearly be felt that sustainability is the focus of every decision at all levels and that it is lived. We are aware of our responsibility and go one step further every day.”

MONIQUE

“I think it is great that we do a lot for our sustainability. For example, we only use biodegradable cleaning products. Many of our guests also want to join our sustainability efforts and use their towels a second time, for example. So you can see that we also pass our desire, to always become even more sustainable, to others.”

BRUNO

“Sustainability is the key to carbon neutralisation. Hereby waste reduction is a very important point, which starts already at the purchasing stage. It is also important to deal consciously with energy. There are so many ways each one of us can do something.”

SARAH

“I deliberately chose the Radisson Blu Hotel, Bremen for my apprenticeship because sustainability is just as important to them as it is to me.”

ANGIE

“For me, an employer is always characterised by its closeness to people, because many forget that sustainability also concerns human resources. The personalised and individualised personnel support in our house not only makes me proud, but also creates a distinctive working atmosphere and a family-like atmosphere that cannot be taken for granted in a company of this size. With our focus on a duty scheduling intended to facilitate a real work life balance, we show our team that we deal responsibly and also sustainably with the work performance of each individual.”
