

BLINDEKUH 6

www.blindekuh.ch

Training courses in the dark: experience behaviour, interaction and communication in a different light: the dark. Darkness offers the unique opportunity to rediscover yourself. We have a varied course programme for companies, institutions, administrative organizations and schools: a sensory trail in the dark, communication in the dark, team development in the dark, management skills in the dark, stress management in the dark and conflict management in the dark. The restaurant team can put together the modules according to your requirements. The training courses are held by experienced instructors. Take this unique opportunity to see yourself in a new light.

General remarks

Blindekuh can also be used by external training organizers. Contact the location for more information on the possibilities and conditions.
