Town hall

At the beginning of the 14th century the Aachen citizenship built the gothic 'Rathaus' (town hall) on the foundation walls of the derelict palace building of Charlemagne. Between 936 and 1531 the banquets of the Aachen royal coronation ceremonies were held at this place. Today the monumental coronation hall still reminds of this time. There are also reproductions true to the originals of the imperial regalia, among them the imperial crowns, swords and the gospel books of sovereigns of the Middle Ages.

Museums

Centre Charlemagne – Neues Stadtmuseum Aachen

The new city museum 'Centre Charlemagne – Neues Stadtmuseum Aachen' in the heart of the former palatinate area of Charlemagne brings important stages of the city's history to life: the Carolingian time, in which Aachen became the centre of the Franconian Empire, the city of coronations and sophisticated health resort of the baroque period. In the history laboratory you can immerse into Carolingian daily life and try out many things yourself: How heavy was a chain mail? What kind of cloths did ordinary people wear? What was the ink made of used for the magnificent scripts?

Couven Museum

Since 1958 the 'House Monheim' in the historical city centre of Aachen has been an exhibition place of particularly impressive upper middle-class cultivation of home décor. The rooms form a harmonious ensemble of various interior design styles from Rococo to the Biedermeier era. In a large room display cabinet a selection of magnificent silver utensils of the 18th century are e.g. presented. More practical equipment in the kitchen – coffee roaster, coffee grinder and porcelain tableware – shows that luxury drinks as coffee, tea and chocolate also found their way into middle-class life.

Grashaus

Aachen is the city of the Charlemagne Prize and has the special commitment of introducing young people to the topic of Europe. This takes place in the 'Grashaus', which represents the station 'Europe' of the Route Charlemagne. The 'Grashaus' is one of the oldest buildings in Aachen and of great historical importance. Although the educationalists have adjusted themselves to their young audience with monumental comic drawings of the Berlin artist Andree Volkmann and modern interactive media stations, the beautiful old architecture has well been preserved. After registration, visitors can visit the house with the historic charter hall and the central hall called 'chapel'.

Route Charlemagne – A walk through Aachen's history

The 'Route Charlemagne' is an excursion tour along all great sights of Aachen's inner city. The 'Centre Charlemagne – Neues Stadtmuseum Aachen' (A) is centre and starting point of the 'Route Charlemagne', which leads to important places and buildings, e.g. the Aachen Cathedral, the historic 'Rathaus' (town hall) and many places more. Each station deals with its own subject of Aachen's town history around Charlemagne, but is also exemplary for the historic development within Europe. War and peace as well as Aachen's coronation tradition are in the focus of a visit of the Rathaus (B). In Cathedral and treasury (C) religious aspects are in the foreground. In the 'Grashaus' (D) school classes learn all about Europe and its meaning. The 'Elisenbrunnen' (E) tells us about the spa resort Aachen. The Couven Museum (F) demonstrates how citizens used to live in past times. The 'Internationale Zeitungsmuseum' (G) (International Newspaper Museum) deals with history and future of the media landscape. Last but not least there is the SuperC (H) next to the main building of the RWTH Aachen as a symbol for modern science.

Our favourite spots

For us Aachen definitely is the most beautiful city in the world! To prove this, we present you a selection of our personal favourite spots. Let you be inspired by us for your stay in Aachen: My favourite spot in Aachen...

...is Pontstraße.

Especially on summer evenings I like to meet my friends in one of the beautiful bars or cafes. With a cappuccino or cocktail I can switch off super and chat comfortably with my friends. Afterwards, the clubs invite you to dance and party with loud music. There is a relaxed atmosphere, where you can also get to know new people.

- Corinna, Team Marketing & Communication

...is Annastraße.

As I walk along it, the anticipation of entering our beautiful old town mixes with fascination over the picturesque house facades. On the way, I enjoy the silence that lasts here for a little while until the street opens like a gate to the Fischpüddelchen and reveals the view of the cathedral spires. Individual and noble stores can be found here. From handmade dolls, chic handbags, fine handcrafted jewelry to special second hand bargains or even fine wool for needlework and impressive painting art - here the astonished guest and the savvy Aachen connoisseur will find tasteful specialties.

...are the agricultural roads north of Aachen near Orsbach, direction Dutch border. Coming from Laurensberg on the Herzogsweg, you first have a fantastic view over all of Aachen. If you then walk further in the direction of Orsbach you are almost alone there and can enjoy the peace and the wonderful landscape. Sturdy shoes are definitely an advantage. At dusk you can even be lucky and spot some deer in the fields.

...is the Katschhof,

when the Old Town Flea Market takes place there. Several times a year, the square between the cathedral and the town hall and the surrounding alleys are transformed into a true paradise for junk lovers like me. Young and old, people from Aachen and guests from near and far meander through the rows and marvel at antiques, modern items or curiosities in the shadow of the cathedral. Whether it's bright summer sunshine or cool autumn temperatures, the stalls are always well attended and there is cheerful haggling on every corner. The search for nostalgic treasures in front of a fascinating, historical backdrop - for me, the perfect combination.

Shopping in Aachen

Shopping in front of historic scenery with picturesque facades and narrow alleys, student atmosphere and international flair ... this is a special experience, which you would hardly find anywhere else. Aachen, on the one hand, offers department stores as well as small and big shopping malls and, on the other hand, also special, exclusive, partly owner-run boutiques and shops with their very own style. In Aachen the symbiosis of experiencing and enjoying is well noticeable. Between shopping and strolling around you should have a break in one of the beautiful cafés or bistros that invite you to linger and quickly let you forget about your original plans for your shopping day in Aachen. Shopping in Aachen – everything included!

The shops are mainly open from Mon – Sat from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. (the exact opening hours of individual shops may vary).

Vennbahn

The Vennbahn belongs to the longest rail trail cycling tracks in Europe. While the track was formerly mainly used for the transport of coal and iron ore for more than 100 years, today cyclists pass the three countries Germany, Belgium and Luxembourg. The track is mainly asphalted and accompanied by nature, borderland flair and Vennbahn history. It can also easily be managed by untrained sportspersons and families.

! Note

125 km long cycling and hiking path from Aachen to Troisvierges (LUX)

Average gradient 2 % (offside the track 3-10 % is possible)

Hiking in the 'Aachener Wald'

A junction point system marks walking and hiking tours around Aachen. Numbered junction points at 90 locations make planning of hiking tours easier for walkers and hikers and facilitate orientation in the 'Aachener Wald'. Of the about 220 kilometres hiking track network in the 'Aachener Wald' 80 kilometres have currently been marked with junction point numbers.

@ Web

www.aachen.de/wandern

💡 Tip

A map with all junctions is available at the information point Tourist Info Elisenbrunnen and in many municipal offices.

Eifelsteig

True to the motto: 'where rock and water accompany you' the Eifelsteig is characterised by a varied, close-to-nature route with a high percentage of natural paths, magnificent views and a great number of formation changes: From the highland moors of the Hohe Venn and beech hedges of the Monschau countryside, which are partly as high as the houses, through the national park Eifel with rock passage ways to especially impressive volcanic lakes near Daun and through the south of the Eifel to the destination Trier.

 Web

www.eifelsteig.de

 Note

313 km long premium hiking trail from Aachen/Kornelimünster to Trier

.....
15 stages, each between 14 and 28 km

 Tip

The Inderoute is perfectly suited for starting the Eifelsteig hiking tour!

GrenzRouten

On the GrenzRouten you can explore the landscape, culture and history of the three-country region Germany, Belgium and the Netherlands. The routes lead through the wide hedged landscape of East Belgium, along rows of gnarled beech trees at the historic Landgraben of the Aachen Empire to the Limburg Heuvelland. The 6 to 19 km long loop trails additionally offer theme tours through the three countries and their common border country history.

 Note

Grünmetropole

Pure nature, interesting sights, places of historical interest and cultural variety. The Grünmetropole is worth a visit! The region Aachen-Düren-Heinsberg offers the visitor exciting adventure possibilities and contrasts within a small area. Abandoned areas characterized by industry, extensive heath landscapes and river valleys are waiting for you to be discovered.

 Tip

Discover the 'Grünmetropole' by bicycle or on foot with the aid of the online-tour planner of the 'Grünmetropole' that can be downloaded under www.gruenmetropole.eu

Spa and rehab in Aachen

Burtscheid - Aachen's spa and rehabilitation district

The pedestrian zone with its small shops and their varied offer around the market square of Burtscheid, the weekly market as well as cafés and restaurants offer many possibilities to stay and linger. The Burtscheid spa gardens invite you for walks or simply relax under old trees. Right at the Burtscheid market square there are also the handicapped accessible guest facilities of the spa administration "Haus des Gastes".

Already in early times the Romans in the former "Porcetum" discovered hot springs and used them for alleviation of diseases. Today the spa and rehabilitation facilities are mainly located in Burtscheid. Therefore, Aachen is permitted to call itself "Bad Aachen".

Mineral thermal springs in Burtscheid

The Burtscheid mineral thermal springs with their 73°C are the hottest springs within Central Europe and are especially suited for alleviation of the following health complaints:

- Rheumatic disorders
- Degenerative disorders of the musculoskeletal system
- Conditions following accidents, secondary treatment of paralysis, and surgery on the Musculoskeletal System
- Joint alterations due to gout

Today the bathing tradition in the mineral thermal water of the medicinal springs is being continued in a modern form in the Carolus Thermen Bad Aachen. More information at www-carolus-thermen.de

Note

Compared with the Burtscheid springs, the Aachen springs contain a slightly higher proportion of free hydrogen sulphide (H₂S).

Arrival and mobility

Environmental zone Aachen

As of February 2016, Aachen has an Environmental Zone. For the most part, the boundary of the Environmental Zone follows Aachen's outer ring road. In order to be able to drive your vehicle into Aachen's city centre, you now need a so-called 'Green Sticker'.

Outside the Environmental Zone there are in total five park-&-ride areas from where you can catch a bus into the city centre on a regular basis.

- Hangeweier (Hermann-Löns-Allee)
- Jülicher Straße/Berliner Ring
- Tivoli-Parkhaus (Krefelder Straße)
- Waldfriedhof (Monschauer Straße)
- Westfriedhof (Vaalser Straße)

Our tip:

With the Park & Ride ticket, up to five people can park for €5 and travel by bus within the Alleenring (round trip). More information at www.aachen.de/parkandride.
